28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday, Oct 11th, 2020

Invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.

Matthew 22.1-14

Sunday Reflection: We are invited to live in the house of the Lord for all eternity. As we move to the end of another liturgical year, our readings begin to speak to us about the end times. Full of hope and encouragement, they are meant to spur us on to faithful Gospel living no matter what befalls us in this life. Set among them is the responsorial psalm for today, Psalm 23, where the Lord is our shepherd who leads us to green pastures.

LITURGY OF THE WORD The prophet Isaiah tells of the great banquet the Lord will prepare for his people at the end of time. Paul writes to the Philippians, assuring them that he knows how to live in different sets of circumstances, and that I can do all things in him who strengthens me. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a parable likening the kingdom of heaven to a king hosting a wedding feast for his son.

Our Parish office will be closed on Monday, October 12th due to Thanksgiving. We will be happy to take names by phone on Tuesday and Wednesday for Mass registration (Sunday, Oct 18th)

Due to COVID-19 the parish office is closed to the public. However, we would be happy to assist you through email or phone. (If you do need to come to the office please wear a mask). Mass cards are available/contactless pick up.

Thanksgiving Day Monday, Oct 12th – It is fitting for God’s people to offer thanks for all the gifts we have received. The bountiful produce of the earth is a visible sign of the many blessings God wants to shower on us through Christ. Our God also wants us to share the goods of the earth with our brothers and sister,

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. Eph. 1.3-10

To ensure the safety of everyone and to help flatten the curve it is mandatory that you wear a mask while attending Mass at Sacred Heart Parish. We also ask parishioners to avoid socializing and gathering after Mass on church property. We thank you for your co-operation and understanding.

All Souls Envelopes for November are available in the back of the Church and Chapel. Please return to the parish office mailbox or the box in the Church foyer.

This past Sunday, on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi we had 20 plus families participate in our drive through “Pet Blessing” This photo captures Fr. Francis blessing 3 puppy dogs.

My God will supply whatever you need..." - Philippians 4:19
God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.
